

The Second Part.

Containing the Tragedie
Richard Duke of Yorke, and the good King Henrie the Sixt.

Enter Richard Duke of Yorke, the Earle of Warwicke, the Norfolke, Marquesse Mountague, Edward Earle of Ma
Crooke backe Richard, and the young Earle of Rutland, w and souldiers, with white Roses in their hats.

Warwicke.
Wonder how the King escap'd our hand
Yorke. Whilst we pursu'd the horseme
North,
He slyly stole away and left his men:
Whereat the great Lord of Northumb
Whose warlike eares could neuer bro treat,

Charg'd our maine battels front, and there with him
Lord Stafford and Lord Clifford all abreast Broke in, and were by th' hands of common souldiers sla
Edward. Lord Staffords Father, Duke of Buckingham
Is either slaine or wounded dangerously,
